Join us as local author Maryann Proper reads from and discusses her books: A Story from a Basket Maker's Daughter, The Hill and The Hill: Trying Times.

Proper grew up in West Taghkanic with her basketmaking mother Elizabeth Proper. This experience inspired her to write stories rooted in living history in order to preserve that period in time. Maryann will have copies of her books for sale and will also be bringing some of her collection of Taghkanic baskets.
